

Bequests

Gifts made through a Will

A common form of planned giving is a charitable bequest, in which you bequest a specific sum, property, percentage of your estate, or portion of your estate to the Ossabaw Island Foundation Inc.

Please consider a bequest for the Ossabaw Island Foundation to leave a legacy for Georgia's third-largest barrier island. Every estate plan is different, so please share this information with your estate planner to determine which works best for you.

Residual Bequest Language

A residual bequest is a gift made to the Ossabaw Island Foundation after paying all other bequests, debts, and taxes.

Contingent Bequest Language

I give, devise and bequeath to the Ossabaw Island Foundation, Inc., a non-profit corporation duly existing under the laws of the State of Georgia and located in Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia, in the United States [all or ___%] of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, to be used for its unrestricted use ..sum of $_____ [or all or a specific percentage of the residue of my estate] to be used for its general support.

The material provided is not offered as legal or tax advice. Examples of prospective benefits may not apply to your situation at the time of your gift. We encourage our donors to seek the advice of a tax advisor, attorney, and/or financial planner.*

August 4, 2023